

Middle School Part-Time Teacher
for Religion and Electives

St. Theresa Catholic School is accepting applications for an energetic, enthusiastic, faith-filled part-time middle school religion and electives teacher for the 2025-2026 school year.

The successful candidate will have an active VA teaching or VCEA license, experience with differentiation in the classroom, Active Boards, online grading, and be a practicing Catholic. In addition, we are seeking someone with experience teaching and planning religion. Each candidate should work well as part of a middle school faculty team that actively engages students in their faith formation, academic instruction, and the development of the whole person.

Once hired, the school expects faculty members to stay current with professional development activities, as well as to participate in the school's in-services, meetings, and other events.

TO APPLY - Candidates should submit a letter of interest, resume, at least three (3) professional references and sample lesson plan to hr@sainttheresaparish.com.